SUCH A TIME

Esther 4:14

[14]For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this? ❤

Every temptation
You helped me escape
Every tribulation
You gave me strength
For every valley You walked me through
Every Mountain by faith
That You moved ,
You showed me
With You I can do all things
That even with infirmities
You can use me for Your glory
So I will pursue peace
But I wont hold it in
If You have called me to speak
I will open my lips
Let me grow with discernment
So that according to Your spirit
I speak with words You find eloquent
And to Your people they become medicine
And to my enemies , they become like honey
For even though they may dig a pit for me
With You my Lord there is eternal safety
So I wont focus on the pain
I will focus on the endgame
Seeking the kingdom and Your righteousness
Knowing You have prepared me for
Such a time as this ,
To pray without ceasing
To praise You zealously
To walk in Your abundant joy
And perfect peace
And love Your people
Cheerfully
And speak, Your truth
Write for You
May this poem be a declaration
of You ,Most High Ahayah
And How great are You !
For Every temptation
You helped me escape
Every tribulation
You gave me strength
For every valley You walked me through
Every Mountain by faith
That You moved ,You showed me
With You I can do all things
That even with infirmities
You can use me for Your glory
As You continue to Purify me
Continue to perfect me
Continue to fill me with Your fruits of the spirit
Pushing out all wickedness
So that I may be ready,Always
With prayers and praises
For such a time as this

Esther 1:12

[12]But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

Esther 1

Who are the King and Queen ?

2) What did the Queen do that was out of order ?

As a leader for the women let us reflect on her actions and how it could have caused discord within the kingdom.

What were the consequences of her actions ? And how did her one choice affect her, entire life but also make a way for Esther to be in a position to help her people ?

Esther 2:17

[17]And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti..

♥ Esther 3

What was Mordecai's reason for not bowing or giving reverence to Haman? And what was his consequence?

Did Mordecai's actions affect only him?

What does Pur mean ?

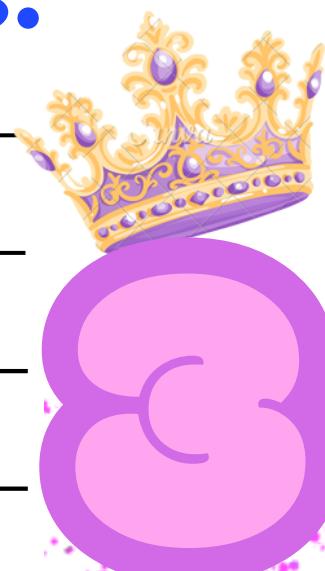

Once again let us reflect on our own actions and how it affects not only us but everyone around us. And ask ourselves are we intentional to give Ahayah the glory? Are we intentional, in the way we present ourselves and behave , as a representative of our people , and a Daughter of Zion?

Chapter 4

What did Mordecai want Esther to do ?

What did Esther ask of Mordecai and the Jews that were in Shushan?

Reflect on the advice and rebuke Mordecai gave Esther, as her guardian. Do you have a head within your household? If not who would you go to within the body for advice and guidance such as this? And be honest with yourself, if He were to speak to you like Mordecai , would you respond like Esther?

Reflect on Esther and her faith as well as Mordecai and his faith in this chapter, how can you apply that to your life ? Have you had any moments such as this? Are you in a moment such as this? How can Mordecai's and Esther's actions help you?

Chapter 6 and 7

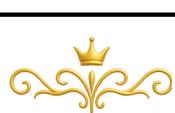

How did Ahayah show Mordecai favor in these chapters?

How did Esther speak to the King so that he could see the problem while displaying temperance and grace and showing him respect ? How can we learn from this example when we speak to those in authority, husbands, and each other?

How did Haman prepare for his own death?

CHAPTER 9

Reflect on Mordecai's growth within this book from chapter 1 until this chapter and how The Mos High was with him every step of the way, how can his actions encourage you with the choices that you have to make?

Also reflect on Esther... how was Esther's obedience and loyalty to Mordecai important for him to be in a position where his respect and Power helped the people? Especially in this chapter reflect on how Mordecai wrote letters instructing Purim, and how Esther wrote a letter to confirm they had both been in agreement from chapter 1.. on one accord.

In this chapter how did Esther exercise her power and position she was given by The Most High , and the King through her virtue to help her people and execute justice? How did Esther also show an example to us on how we as women are to be feminine ,dainty but strong while remaining discreet and meek at the same time. Knowing when to speak and when to listen.....according to the spirit.

Why do we call it Purim?
According to Esther 9:19 and 22 Purim is a day of ?.....

CHAPTER 13

Today let's follow in Mordecai's example let us reflect on all that The Most High has done for us , all that He has delivered us through, and if we are dealing with any adversity right now , let us make our declaration to The Most High , lets not be afraid to cry and release our heart up to The Most High. If you don't have anything that you're going through, write a declaration of peace and praise for the calm season you are in. You can also do it on behalf of someone else, or The Nation of Israel and the body of Christ, declaring the victories in the past and this present time.

Heart CHAPTER 14+15

Reflect on Esther's declaration and cry to The Most High and her testimony. How does it encourage you and what you're going through? How can you relate to her in this moment ?

Are you struggling with any fear, anxiety, depression or any negative emotion that is hindering you from hearing The Most High clearly? Let us do as Queen Esther did and cry out to The Most High and speak with Him and have confidence that He hears us , knowing that if He hears us that He will give us the petitions of what we asked for.

1 John 5:14+15

*14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:
15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.*

CHAPTER 16

Now let us reflect on this letter from the King.

How does this encourage you to know that The Most High can change any heart? Though in Genesis it was a different story between Moses and the pharaoh with his heart turning hard. in Esther's and Mordecai's testimony, The Most High changed the King's heart with favor and compassion. Let us praise Him for all the hearts He has changed to help us, ESPECIALLY, our own !

Blessed Purim
Canaan

Now that we've come to the end of Esther and the start of Purim , I pray we continue to reflect on what we have learned about leaning and cleaving unto The Most High and learning to trust him and preparing yourself to be used for that time that He appoints you.

Has Ahayah been calling you to do something ?
Have you sought council from your head of your home?
and/or from leadership?

Have you prayed and fasted like Esther?
Are you preparing your heart,
to do the righteous thing when that time comes?

How has reading this book impacted you and your life and what you may be called to do? Though there may be risks and there may be consequences for you and your people. It is important to always remember , there also will be consequences for not doing it too.

I pray this devotional has brought you insight on the powerful history of Esther and Mordecai, and that you will take wisdom with you that you will remember and treasure and keep safe in your heart , for that moment such as this , when you will need it to complete your assignment and endure temptations and overcome tribulations , as we strive to be virtuous Daughters of Zion and good and faithful servants of THE MOST HIGH, in Christ Yashayas name ahman.
